100 words:

Singer/songwriter Billy Coulter recently won the Mid-Atlantic Song Contest's Rock category and has also received multiple Washington Area Music Award nominations in the short time since his return to performing. His brand of Roots-Pop is as familiar as classic rock but is refreshingly new. Backed by players from legendary regional bands, Coulter and his group create an honest, organic sound rich with melodic hooks and expressive lyrics. Music Monthly calls their CD "straight forward and gimmick free." And the Chesapeake Music Guide remarked, "Good tunes with memorable melodies and subjects that everyday folks can relate to."
